ADVENTURE PROGRAMS AT BEECHWORTH (SUITABLE FOR YEAR 6 TO 12)

OVERVIEW

Beechworth is a Goldfields town located in the North East of Victoria, which has both a significant local population and magnificent and accessible History and Heritage dating from the Gold Field era. There is a variety of accommodation available and camping is possible also.

HISTORY and HERITAGE

- Museums
- Restored Historical Buildings
- Court House where Ned Kelly Trial commenced
- Historical prison
- Latrobe University Campus (using 1860's Asylum Buildings) with magnificent gardens
- Heritage shops and historical residential streets

CLOSE TO TOWN

We have good low-level adventure assets located within a walking distance from the town itself.

- Lake for canoes / raft building
- Cliff for abseiling
- National Park for Bushwalks
- Areas for team games
- Waterfalls
- Mining Era Relics

SHORT BUS TRIP

Further assets are only a short bus trip away

- Bigger Cliffs for abseiling
- Rock Climbing
- Aboriginal Art Sites
- Old Open cut and other historical gold mines
- Gold Panning
- Waterfalls
- Bushwalking in National Parks

PROGRAMS

We can design and facilitate programs suitable for various age groups and outcomes.
